```
-(void) endAssignment
                                                    -(void) endWhenCondition
           b = [sas pop];
                                                                                                                                      -(void) endCarrotCondition
                                                           a = [sas pop]; // Conditional result
           boff = 0:
                                                           b = [sas pop]; // end of statement
           if (b = (int) subListType)
                                                                                                                                             c = [sas pop]; // Results of conditional
                                                           c = [sas pop]; // beginning of the statement (at the jump).
                  [self evalSublistB]:
                                                                                                                                             b = [sas pop]; // Jump coordinates after statement [imCode genguad:(int) jtrue
           a = [sas pop]; // E2's value
                                                                                                                                             a = [sas pop]: // Jump coordinates before statement arq1:a
           aoff = 0:
                                                                         arg2:0
           if (a = (int) subListType)
                                                                          results: c + 11:
                  [self evalSublistA]:
                                                                                                                                             fimCode codeAt:a
                                                           [imCode codeAt:c
                                                                                                                                                          results: b + 1 l:
                                                                          results: b + 1 1:
           [imCode genguad:(int) assign
                                                                                                                                             fimCode codeAt:b
                                                           [imCode codeAt:b
                         arg1:b
                                                                                                                                                          results: [imCode nextQuad]];
                                                                          results: [imCode nextQuad] ];
                         arg1Offset: boff
                                                                                                                                             [imCode genguad:(int) jtrue
                                                                                         -(void) constantEvaluation:(int) value
                         arg2:0
                                                                                                                                                          arg1:c
                                                         prog(x)
                         arg2Offset:0
                                                                                                                                                          arg2:0
                                                                                                [sas push:value];
                         results: a
                                                                                                                                                          results: a + 1;
                                                                x:array[10];
                         resultOffset: aoff 1:
                                                                max,i:integer;
    -(void) evaluation:(int) op
                                                                                                                                      -(void) endCarrotExpression
                                                    \bigcirc {
                                                                                                                                  K {
           aoff = 0:
                                                                                                                                             c = [sas pop]; // Results of conditional
                                                                                        -(void) beginStatement
                                                         := \max x[1];
           boff = 0:
                                                                                                                                             b = [sas pop]; // Jump coordinates after statement
           c = [myST gentemp];
                                                                                                                                             a = [sas pop]; // Jump coordinates before statement
                                                         := i 2;
                                                                                                [sas push:[imCode nextOuad]]:
           a = [sas pop]; // E2's value
                                                                                                [imCode genguad:(int) jmp];
           if (a = (int) subListType)
                                                                                                                                             d = [imCode nextOuad]:
                                                                                                                                             [imCode genguad:(int) jmp
                  [self evalSublistA];
                                                                                                                                                          arg1:0
                                                    b = [sas pop]; // E1's value
                                                                                                                                                          arg2:0
                                                        := i + i 1; ← 🔞
           if (b = (int) subListType)
                                                                                                                                                          results: 0 1:
                  [self evalSublistB]:
                                                                                                                                             [imCode genguad:(int) minusType
                                                         }^ when 9;←(κ)
                                                                                                                                                          arg1:c
                                                                                                                                                          arg2:1
                                                         } -> (max)
           [imCode genquad: op
                                                                                                                                                          results: c ];
                                                                                                                                             e = [myST gentemp];
                         arg1:b
                         arg1Offset:aoff
                                                                                                                                             [imCode genguad:(int) lessEqType
                                                           -(void) beginElseStatement arg2:a
                                                                                                                                                          arg1:c
                         arg2Offset:boff
                                                                                                                                                          arg2:0
                                                                  a = [sas pop]; // Conditional result
                         results: c
                                                                                                                                                          results: e ];
                                                                  b = [sas pop]; // end of statement
                         resultOffset:0
                                                                                                                                             [imCode genguad:(int) jtrue
                                                                  c = [sas pop]; // beginning of the statement (at the jump).
                                                                                                                                                          arg1:e
                                                                  [imCode genquad:(int) jtrue
           [sas push: c];
                                                                                                                                                          arg2:0
                                                                                arg1:a
                                                                                                                                                          results: a + 1;
                                                                                arq2:0
                                                                                                                                            [imCode codeAt:a
     -(void) endElseStatement
                                                                                results: c + 1;
                                                                                                                                                          results: b + 1];
X
                                                                  [imCode codeAt:c
                                                                                                                                             [imCode codeAt: b
            b = [sas pop];
                                                                                results: b + 1];
                                                                                                                                                          results: d + 1;
            [imCode codeAt:b
                                                                  [sas push:b];
                                                                                                                                            [imCode codeAt: d
                   results: [imCode nextQuad]];
                                                                                                                                                          results: d + 2];
```